

What You Need to Know about Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. We can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. We offer overdraft protection in the way of a link to a savings account, which allows us to transfer funds automatically from your linked savings account to cover any potential overdraft.
2. We also have secondary overdraft practices that come with your account.

This notice explains our secondary overdraft practices.

What is the secondary overdraft practice that may be applied my account?

We MAY authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

1. Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
2. Automatic bill payments

*We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction.

We do not authorize any ATM or daily Debit Card Transaction if there are not sufficient funds available in your checking account at the time the authorization is requested. (Your transactions will be declined)

What fees could I be charged if United Northwest Federal Credit Union pays my overdraft?

Under our secondary overdraft practices:

- We may charge you a fee of up to $25.00 each time we pay an overdraft.
- If we pay an overdraft on a large item we may charge a $30.00 fee. If that item is not covered within 3 banking days, we may charge that fee daily until it is covered.
- There is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrawing your account.
